HYMN G#35 O Great God

Psalm Psalm 78:1-7

Give ear, O my people, to my teaching; incline your ears to the words of my mouth! I will open my mouth in a parable; I will utter dark sayings from of old, things that we have heard and known, that our fathers have told us.

We will not hide them from our children, but tell to the coming generation the glorious deeds of the LORD, and his might, and the wonders that he has done.

He established a testimony in Jacob and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers to teach to their children,

that the next generation might know them,

the children yet unborn, and arise and tell them to their children,

We will not hide them from our children, but tell to the coming generation the glorious deeds of the LORD, and his might, and the wonders that he has done.

so that they should set their hope in God and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments;

so that they should set their hope in God and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments;

Let the little children come to me ... it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs.
